

PRIVACY POLICY

Last updated: September 24th, 2021

This privacy policy describes our policies and procedures on collecting, using, and disclosing your information when you use Gravity, our Oculus Software Application. If you have any suggestions, questions or concerns related to our privacy policies, please get in touch with us at: joinus@whataboutgravity.com.

What information is obtained, and how is it used?

Gravity does not collect, store, use or transmit any personally identifiable information such as your name, address, location data related to your geographic location, phone number, email address or Oculus ID. We also do comply with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) and do not solicit nor gather any data from children under the age of 13. If a parent or guardian becomes aware that their child has provided us with information without their consent, they should contact us at joinus@whataboutgravity.com.

Share of personal information

We do not collect, use, transmit, or maintain any personal information, therefore, we do not share personal information with anyone. We also do not share any data with advertising agencies/companies or any other companies. Also, Gravity confirms that no data is shared with analytics providers or vendors and any other third parties.

Privacy Policy Updates Notification

This privacy policy may change for any reason from time to time in the future. If we make changes to this privacy policy that may impact you, we will notify you of such changes as appropriate by providing information through updating this document. In this case, we will change the "Last Updated" date at the top of this privacy policy, a prominent notice on our website or application will also appear.
